DESCRIPTION

The Grand Post House is a striking and characterful Grade II listed building prominently positioned on Lichfield Street in the centre of Wolverhampton. Constructed in the late 19th century as the city's principal post office, the property displays impressive period architecture with an imposing façade, decorative stone detailing and large arched windows that provide excellent natural light throughout the interior.

Internally, the building offers substantial accommodation arranged over multiple floors, with generous ceiling heights and spacious open-plan areas that reflect its historic civic use. Many original architectural features remain, providing significant character and a strong sense of heritage, while the internal layout presents a flexible opportunity for a variety of potential uses, subject to planning.

The ground floor is currently tenanted, and trades as a retail shop producing a rental income of £36,000 per annum.

The building extends to a total of 22,975 sq. ft. ( 2,135 sq m).

VAT

We are advised that VAT is not payable in addition to the agreed purchase price.
