LOCATION

The property is situated between Thornes Lane and New Brunswick Street in the well-established Thornes Lane Industrial Estate of the City of Wakefield.

Wakefield city centre, lying approximately 1.5 miles, provides an abundance of amenity including excellent public transport links. The East Coast main line train station provides regular train services between London and Leeds with travel times of 1 hour 45 minutes and 11 minutes respectively for the quickest services.

In terms of road and motorway connections, adjacent Thornes Lane leads directly onto main A636 dual carriageway running 2 miles southwest to Junction 39 of the M1 motorway. For access to the north Junction 40 of the M1 lies 4 miles to the northwest.

Nearby occupiers include Buildbase, Screwfix, Johnstone's Decorating Centre and Edmunson Electrical Centre, to name but a few.

THE PROPERTY

The Property comprises a series of interlinked industrial buildings of varying ages providing additional ancillary, office and welfare accommodation along with external service yards.

The majority of the buildings are of steel portal frame construction with varying eaves heights up to a maximum of 7.9 metres.

Externally the property has numerous access points with the main access being from Thornes Lane and additional access points from New Brunswick Street. Each access point is supplemented by full length roller shutter doors, providing access to the accommodation and flexibility for goods inwards and outwards.

Internally the industrial accommodation provides multiple overhead gantry cranes, ceiling-mounted overhead heating and screed concrete floors. Additionally, there are 2 separate well-appointed office, administration and welfare areas.

ACCOMMODATION

The property provides the following gross internal area (GIA):
